(Patron Prior to Substitute--Delegate Tyler)

A BILL to amend the Code of Virginia by adding in Title 9.1 a chapter numbered 5.1, consisting of sections numbered 9.1-508 through 9.1-512, relating to creation of Correctional Officer Procedural Guarantee Act.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That the Code of Virginia is amended by adding in Title 9.1 a chapter numbered 5.1, consisting of sections numbered 9.1-508 through 9.1-512, as follows:

CHAPTER 5.1.

CORRECTIONAL OFFICER PROCEDURAL GUARANTEE ACT.

§ 9.1-508. Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context requires a different meaning:

"Correctional officer" means a duly sworn non-probationary employee of the Department of Corrections whose normal duties relate to maintaining immediate control, supervision, and custody of prisoners confined in any state correctional facility.

"State correctional facility" means any correctional center or correctional field unit used for the incarceration of adult offenders established and operated by the Department of Corrections.

§ 9.1-509. Conduct of investigation; notice of charges.

A. Whenever an investigation focuses on matters that could lead to the dismissal, demotion, suspension, or transfer for punitive reasons of a correctional officer:

1. Any questioning shall take place at a reasonable time and place, preferably when the correctional officer under investigation is on duty; and

26 2. Prior to the questioning of the correctional officer, he shall be informed of (i) the name and job
27 title of the investigator, (ii) the name and job title of any other individual to be present during the 28 questioning, and (iii) the nature of the investigation.

29 B. After questioning pursuant to subsection A but before any dismissal, demotion, suspension, or 30 transfer for punitive reasons may be imposed, the following rights shall be afforded:

31 1. The correctional officer shall be notified in writing of all charges, the basis therefor, and the 32 action that may be taken;

33 2. The correctional officer shall be given an opportunity, within a reasonable time limit after the 34 date of receipt of the written notice required by subdivision 1, to respond orally and in writing to the 35 charges. The time limit shall be determined by the Department of Corrections, but in no event shall it be 36 less than three calendar days unless agreed to by the correctional officer; and

37 3. In making his response, the correctional officer may be assisted by counsel at his own expense
38 or by a representative.

39 C. The correctional officer shall also be given written notification of his right to initiate a grievance
40 under the grievance procedure established by the Department of Human Resource Management or his 41 right to request a hearing under this chapter. A copy of the grievance procedure, as well as instructions on 42 how to proceed to a hearing under this chapter, shall be provided to the correctional officer upon his 43 request.

44 D. No provision of this section shall apply to any person conducting a criminal investigation or to 45 any correctional officer under investigation for criminal conduct.

46 § 9.1-510. Hearing; recommendations.

47 A. Whenever a correctional officer is dismissed, demoted, suspended without pay, or transferred 48 for punitive reasons, he may, within a reasonable amount of time following such action, as set by the 49 agency, request a hearing. If such request is timely made, a hearing shall be held within a reasonable
50 amount of time set by the agency. The hearing shall be set no later than 14 calendar days following the 51 date of request, unless a later date is agreed to by the correctional officer.

52 B. At the hearing, the correctional officer and the agency shall have the opportunity to present
53 evidence and to examine and cross-examine witnesses. The correctional officer shall also be given the 54 opportunity to be represented by counsel or a representative at the hearing.

55 C. The hearing shall be conducted by a panel consisting of one member from within the agency
56 selected by the grievant, one member from within the agency appointed by the agency head, and a third
57 member selected by the other two members. These members shall be security officers of no more than 58 three ranks above the rank of the grievant. If there is no agreement on a third member, the third member
59 shall be chosen by the chief circuit court judge of the circuit where the correctional officer is employed.
60 The hearing panel may issue subpoenas to compel witness testimony at the request of either the 61 correctional officer or the agency. The hearing panel shall rule on the admissibility of evidence. A record
62 shall be made of the hearing.

63 D. At the option of the agency, it may, in lieu of complying with the provisions of § 9.1-509, (i)
64 give the correctional officer a written statement of the charges and the basis for them, and the action that
65 may be taken, and (ii) provide a hearing as provided for in this section prior to dismissing, demoting,
66 suspending, or transferring the correctional officer for disciplinary reasons.

67 E. The recommendations of the hearing panel and the reasons therefor shall be made in writing
68 and transmitted promptly to the correctional officer or his counsel and to the agency. Such 69 recommendations shall be advisory only but shall be accorded significant weight.

70 F. No provision of this section shall apply to correctional officers dismissed, demoted, suspended
71 without pay, or transferred for punitive reasons as a result of a criminal conviction.

72 § 9.1-511. Immediate suspension.

73 Nothing in this chapter shall prevent the immediate suspension without pay of any correctional 74 officer whose continued presence in the workplace may be harmful to the correctional officer, other
75 employees, contractors, volunteers, prisoners, or the public; makes it impossible for the agency to conduct
76 business; may hamper an internal investigation into the correctional officer's alleged misconduct; may 77 hamper an investigation being conducted by law enforcement; or may constitute negligence in regard to 78 the agency's duties to the public, other employees, contractors, volunteers, or prisoners. Further, nothing

79 in this chapter shall prevent the suspension of a correctional officer for refusing to obey a direct order
80 issued in compliance with the agency's written and disseminated policies. In such a case, the correctional 81 officer shall, upon request, be afforded the rights provided under this chapter within a reasonable amount
82 of time set by the agency.

83 § 9.1-512. Informal counseling not prohibited.

84 Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prohibit the informal counseling of a correctional 85 officer by a supervisor in reference to a minor infraction of policy or procedure that does not result in 86 disciplinary action being taken against the correctional officer.
