

HOUSE BILL NO. 2016

AMENDMENT IN THE NATURE OF A SUBSTITUTE

(Proposed by the House Committee for Courts of Justice on _____)

A BILL to amend and reenact § 19.2-163 of the Code of Virginia and to amend the Code of Virginia by adding a section numbered 19.2-160.1, relating to appointment of counsel; Class 1 felonies.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That § 19.2-163 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted and that the Code of Virginia is amended by adding a section numbered 19.2-160.1 as follows:

§ 19.2-160.1. Appointment of counsel in Class 1 felony cases.

A. In any case in which an indigent defendant is charged with a Class 1 felony in a jurisdiction in which a public defender office is established, the court shall, upon request for the appointment of counsel and in the absence of a conflict, appoint such public defender office to represent the defendant. Upon motion of the attorney from a public defender office, the judge of the circuit court shall appoint a competent, qualified, and experienced attorney from the list maintained by the Indigent Defense Commission pursuant to § 19.2-163.01 to serve as co-counsel.

If the public defender notifies the court of a conflict and withdraws from representation, and the court had appointed one additional counsel to assist the public defender's office, then upon the withdrawal of the public defender's office the court shall appoint one additional competent, qualified, and experienced attorney from the list maintained by the Indigent Defense Commission pursuant to § 19.2-163.01 to serve as co-counsel for the defendant.

B. In any case in which an indigent defendant is charged with a Class 1 felony in a jurisdiction in which there is no public defender, upon request for the appointment of counsel, the court shall appoint two competent, qualified, and experienced attorneys, from the list maintained by the Indigent Defense Commission pursuant to § 19.2-163.01 to serve as co-counsels for the defendant.

27 § 19.2-163. Compensation of court-appointed counsel.

28 Upon submission to the court, for which appointed representation is provided, of a detailed 29 accounting of the time expended for that representation, made within 30 days of the completion of all 30 proceedings in that court, counsel appointed to represent an indigent accused in a criminal case shall be 31 compensated for his services on an hourly basis at a rate set by the Supreme Court of Virginia in a total 32 amount not to exceed the amounts specified in the following schedule:

33 1. In a district court, a sum not to exceed $120, provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing
34 limitation, the court in its discretion, and subject to guidelines issued by the Executive Secretary of the 35 Supreme Court of Virginia, may waive the limitation of fees up to (i) an additional $120 when the effort
36 expended, the time reasonably necessary for the particular representation, the novelty and difficulty of the 37 issues, or other circumstances warrant such a waiver; or (ii) an amount up to $650 to defend, in the case
38 of a juvenile, an offense that would be a felony if committed by an adult that may be punishable by 39 confinement in the state correctional facility for a period of more than 20 years, or a charge of violation
40 of probation for such offense, when the effort expended, the time reasonably necessary for the particular 41 representation, the novelty and difficulty of the issues, or other circumstances warrant such a waiver; or 42 (iii) such other amount as may be provided by law. Such amount shall be allowed in any case wherein 43 counsel conducts the defense of a single charge against the indigent through to its conclusion or a charge 44 of violation of probation at any hearing conducted under § 19.2-306; thereafter, compensation for 45 additional charges against the same accused also conducted by the same counsel shall be allowed on the 46 basis of additional time expended as to such additional charges;

47 2. In a circuit court (i) to defend a Class 1 felony charge, compensation for each appointed attorney 48 in an amount deemed reasonable by the court; (ii) to defend a felony charge that may be punishable by
49 confinement in the state correctional facility for a period of more than 20 years, or a charge of violation
50 of probation for such offense, a sum not to exceed $1,235, provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing
51 limitation, the court in its discretion, and subject to guidelines issued by the Executive Secretary of the 52 Supreme Court of Virginia, may waive the limitation of fees up to an additional $850 when the effort
53 expended, the time reasonably necessary for the particular representation, the novelty and difficulty of the

54 issues, or other circumstances warrant such a waiver; (iii) to defend any other felony charge, or a charge 55 of violation of probation for such offense, a sum not to exceed $445, provided that, notwithstanding the 56 foregoing limitation, the court in its discretion, and subject to guidelines issued by the Executive Secretary
57 of the Supreme Court of Virginia, may waive the limitation of fees up to an additional $155 when the 58 effort expended, the time reasonably necessary for the particular representation, the novelty and difficulty 59 of the issues, or other circumstances warrant such a waiver; and (iv) in the circuit court only, to defend 60 any misdemeanor charge punishable by confinement in jail or a charge of violation of probation for such 61 offense, a sum not to exceed $158. In the event any case is required to be retried due to a mistrial for any 62 cause or reversed on appeal, the court may allow an additional fee for each case in an amount not to exceed 63 the amounts allowable in the initial trial. In the event counsel is appointed to defend an indigent charged
64 with a felony that is punishable as a Class 1 felony, ~~such counsel~~ each attorney appointed shall continue 65 to receive compensation as provided in this paragraph for defending such a felony, regardless of whether 66 the charge is reduced or amended to a lesser felony, prior to final disposition of the case. In the event 67 counsel is appointed to defend an indigent charged with any other felony, such counsel shall receive 68 compensation as provided in this paragraph for defending such a felony, regardless of whether the charge 69 is reduced or amended to a misdemeanor or lesser felony prior to final disposition of the case in either the 70 district court or circuit court.

71 Counsel appointed to represent an indigent accused in a criminal case, who are not public 72 defenders, may request an additional waiver exceeding the amounts provided for in this section. The 73 request for any additional amount shall be submitted to the presiding judge, in writing, with a detailed 74 accounting of the time spent and the justification for the additional amount. The presiding judge shall 75 determine, subject to guidelines issued by the Executive Secretary of the Supreme Court of Virginia,
76 whether the request for an additional amount is justified in whole or in part, by considering the effort
77 expended and the time reasonably necessary for the particular representation, and, if so, shall forward the 78 request as approved to the chief judge of the circuit court or district court for approval.

79 If at any time the funds appropriated to pay for waivers under this section become insufficient, the 80 Executive Secretary of the Supreme Court of Virginia shall so certify to the courts and no further waivers 81 shall be approved.

82 The circuit or district court shall direct the payment of such reasonable expenses incurred by such 83 court-appointed counsel as it deems appropriate under the circumstances of the case. Counsel appointed 84 by the court to represent an indigent charged with repeated violations of the same section of the Code of 85 Virginia, with each of such violations arising out of the same incident, occurrence, or transaction, shall be 86 compensated in an amount not to exceed the fee prescribed for the defense of a single charge, if such 87 offenses are tried as part of the same judicial proceeding. The trial judge shall consider any guidelines
88 established by the Supreme Court but shall have the sole discretion to fix the amount of compensation to 89 be paid counsel appointed by the court to defend a felony charge that is punishable as a Class 1 felony.

90 The circuit or district court shall direct that the foregoing payments shall be paid out by the 91 Commonwealth, if the defendant is charged with a violation of a statute, or by the county, city or town, if 92 the defendant is charged with a violation of a county, city or town ordinance, to the attorney so appointed 93 to defend such person as compensation for such defense.

94 Counsel representing a defendant charged with a Class 1 felony may submit to the court, on a
95 monthly basis, a statement of all costs incurred and fees charged by him in the case during that month.
96 Whenever the total charges as are deemed reasonable by the court for which payment has not previously
97 been made or requested exceed $1,000, the court may direct that payment be made as otherwise provided
98 in this section.

99 When such directive is entered upon the order book of the court, the Commonwealth, county, city 100 or town, as the case may be, shall provide for the payment out of its treasury of the sum of money so 101 specified. If the defendant is convicted, the amount allowed by the court to the attorney appointed to 102 defend him shall be taxed against the defendant as a part of the costs of prosecution and, if collected, the 103 same shall be paid to the Commonwealth, or the county, city or town, as the case may be. In the event that 104 counsel for the defendant requests a waiver of the limitations on compensation, the court shall assess 105 against the defendant an amount equal to the pre-waiver compensation limit specified in this section for

106 each charge for which the defendant was convicted. An abstract of such costs shall be docketed in the 107 judgment docket and execution lien book maintained by such court.

108 Any statement submitted by an attorney for payments due him for indigent representation or for 109 representation of a child pursuant to § 16.1-266 shall, after the submission of the statement, be forwarded
110 forthwith by the clerk to the Commonwealth, county, city or town, as the case may be, responsible for 111 payment.

112 For the purposes of this section, the defense of a case may be considered conducted through to its 113 conclusion and an appointed counsel entitled to compensation for his services in the event an indigent
114 accused fails to appear in court subject to a capias for his arrest or a show cause summons for his failure 115 to appear and remains a fugitive from justice for one year following the issuance of the capias or the 116 summons to show cause, and appointed counsel has appeared at a hearing on behalf of the accused.

117 Effective July 1, 2007, the Executive Secretary of the Supreme Court of Virginia shall track and 118 report the number and category of offenses charged involving adult and juvenile offenders in cases in 119 which court-appointed counsel is assigned. The Executive Secretary shall also track and report the 120 amounts paid by waiver above the initial cap to court-appointed counsel. The Executive Secretary shall 121 provide these reports to the Governor, members of the House Committee on Appropriations, and members
122 of the Senate Committee on Finance and Appropriations on a quarterly basis.
