

1 HOUSE BILL NO. 2114

2 AMENDMENT IN THE NATURE OF A SUBSTITUTE

3 (Proposed by the House Committee on Education

4 on _____)

5 (Patron Prior to Substitute--Delegate Willett)

6 A BILL to amend the Code of Virginia by adding in Article 1 of Chapter 6 of Title 23.1 a section numbered
7 23.1-611.2, relating to public institutions of higher education; tuition and financial aid; dependency
8 override application form.

9 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

10 1. That the Code of Virginia is amended by adding in Article 1 of Chapter 6 of Title 23.1 a section
11 numbered 23.1-611.2 as follows:

12 § 23.1-611.2. Dependency override application form.

13 A. As used in this section, "dependency override" means the documented determination by a
14 financial aid administrator pursuant to 20 U.S.C. § 1087vv(d)(1)(I) that, for the purposes of tuition and
15 financial aid eligibility determinations, a student is an independent student by reason of other unusual
16 circumstances.

17 B. Each public institution of higher education shall create and maintain a dependency override
18 application form. Such form shall:

19 1. Be published electronically on the financial aid page of the institution's website;

20 2. Clearly explain, in language understandable to a student enrolled at the institution, the purposes
21 of a dependency override, potential circumstances that may qualify a student for a dependency override,
22 and common circumstances that do not qualify a student for a dependency override;

23 3. Explicitly include, in language understandable to a student enrolled at the institution, a statement
24 that institutions of higher education are permitted to accept a range of documents to substantiate
25 dependency override applications, including those documents specified by relevant federal law, such as:

26 a. A documented interview between the student and the financial aid administrator;

27 b. A court order or official federal or state documentation showing that the student's parents or 28 legal guardians are incarcerated;

29 c. A documented phone call with or written statement from an attorney, a guardian ad litem, a
30 court-appointed special advocate or an individual with a similar title and role, or a representative of federal
31 TRIO Programs or Gaining Early Awareness and Readiness for Undergraduate Programs (GEAR UP)
32 that confirms the qualifying unusual circumstances and such individual's relationship to the student;

33 d. A documented determination of independence made by a financial aid administrator at another
34 institution of higher education in the same or a prior award year;

35 e. A utility bill, a health insurance document, or another document that demonstrates a separation
36 from the student's parents or legal guardians; or

37 f. A documented phone call with or written statement from a state, local, or tribal welfare agency;
38 an independent living case worker who supports current and former foster youth with the transition to
39 adulthood; or a public or private agency, facility, or program servicing the victims of abuse, neglect,
40 assault, or violence that confirms the qualifying unusual circumstances; and

41 4. Explicitly include, in language understandable to a student enrolled at the institution, the option
42 to apply for a dependency override based on:

43 a. The student's estrangement from his parent or legal guardian, including estrangement as result
44 of the student's membership in or relationship to a class of individuals protected from discrimination
45 pursuant to subdivision B 1 of § 2.2-3900;

46 b. Abuse of the student by his parent or legal guardian;

47 c. The incarceration of the student's parent or legal guardian; or

48 d. The student's inability to contact or locate his parent or legal guardian.

49 C. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the circumstances under which the financial 50 aid office of any public institution of higher education may grant a dependency override.
