A BILL to amend and reenact §§ 60.2-528.1 and 60.2-619 of the Code of Virginia, relating to unemployment compensation; employer failure to respond to requests for information; determinations and decisions by deputy.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That §§ 60.2-528.1 and 60.2-619 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 60.2-528.1. Charging of benefits relating to certain overpayments; penalty for pattern of failure to respond to requests for information.

A. As used in this section, unless the context requires a different meaning:

"Employer," with regard to the timeliness and adequacy of responses, includes an agent of the employer used by the employer to respond to the Commission on the employer's behalf; however, an employer's agent's failure to respond timely or adequately to requests for information with regard to claims involving the agent's other clients shall not be used in determining whether the employer has established a pattern of failing to respond timely or adequately to written requests for information.

"Erroneous payment" means a payment of benefits under this title made prior to a determination by the Commission that the claimant is not eligible or qualified for the benefits paid.

"Information relating to a claim" means information material to a determination or decision by the Commission relating to the payment of benefits under this title, including separation information and information required by the Commission for the establishment of a claim for compensation and information about wages, days, and hours worked.

26 precedes the Commission's next annual calculation of the employer's benefit ratio pursuant to subdivision
27 A 1 a of § 60.2-530.

28 "Written request" includes a request sent electronically.

29 B. An employer's account shall not be relieved of charges relating to an erroneous payment if the 30 Commission determines that:~~1. The erroneous payment was made because~~ the employer has failed to 31 respond timely or adequately to a written request by the Commission for information relating to the claim; 32 and

33 ~~2. The~~ the employer has established a pattern of failing to respond timely or adequately to written 34 requests by the Commission for information relating to claims.

35 C. For purposes of this section, an employer's response to a written request by the Commission for 36 information relating to a claim shall be deemed not to be:

37 1. "Adequate" if it fails to provide sufficient material facts to enable the Commission to make a 38 correct determination regarding a claim for benefits; however, (i) a response shall not be deemed 39 inadequate if the Commission failed to request the necessary information or if information is provided in 40 a format other than as requested, provided that the information is capable of being read by the recipient, 41 and (ii) there shall be a rebuttable presumption that an employer that participates in a fact-finding interview 42 or responds fully to the questions set out on the written request for information has provided an adequate 43 response; or

44 2. "Timely" if it is not made within 10 calendar days after the delivery or mailing of the 45 Commission's request for information.

46 D. An employer shall be deemed to have established a pattern of failing to respond timely or 47 adequately to written requests for information relating to claims if the Commission determines that the 48 employer has failed to respond timely or adequately to a written request for information relating to a claim 49 ~~on four~~ three or more occasions within the applicable review period. The Commission shall not find that 50 an employer has established a pattern of failing to respond timely or adequately to written requests for 51 information relating to claims unless the Commission has provided the employer with the notices required

52 pursuant to subsection E. The Commission shall include in any written request for information from an 53 employer notice of (i) the deadline to provide a timely response, (ii) the requirement to provide an adequate 54 response, and (iii) the consequences of such employer's failure to provide such timely and adequate 55 response.

56 E. The Commission shall provide the employer with a written notice following ~~the employer's first,~~ 57 ~~second, and third determinations that~~ each instance in which the employer failed fails to respond timely 58 or adequately to a written request for information relating to a claim ~~within the applicable review period.~~
59 Each such notice shall be electronically delivered, including delivery through the Employer Self-Service 60 Tax System website maintained by the Commission, or mailed to the ~~employer's last known address of~~ 61 ~~agency record~~ employer and shall advise the employer of the ~~potential~~ implications of the employer's 62 failure to respond timely or adequately to written requests for such information. The Commission shall (i)
63 provide employers who are not registered for a State Information Data Exchange System E-Response or 64 System Integration Account in Virginia with the option to elect delivery of such notices to a designated 65 mailing address and (ii) ensure such notices are delivered to a physical or electronic mailing address 66 customarily used by the employer's designated attorney or authorized representative for unemployment 67 insurance claim matters.

68 F. 1. Upon the Commission's ~~third~~ second determination within the applicable review period that 69 an employer failed to respond timely or adequately to a written request for information relating to a claim, 70 the Commission shall assess upon the employer a civil penalty of ~~$75~~ $100. A copy of the notice of 71 assessment of a civil penalty shall be delivered or mailed to the employer with the notice of the employer's 72 ~~third~~ second such failure as required pursuant to subsection E. Civil penalties collected pursuant to this 73 subsection shall be paid into the Special Unemployment Compensation Administration Fund established 74 pursuant to § 60.2-314. The Commission may compromise, settle, and adjust any such penalty as 75 authorized by § 60.2-521.

76 2. Upon the Commission's third determination, and for each subsequent determination, within the 77 applicable review period that an employer failed to respond timely or adequately to a written request for 78 information relating to a claim, the employer shall be considered to have waived all rights in connection

79 with the claim, including participation and appeal rights otherwise available pursuant to Article 5 (§ 60.2-80 619 et seq.) of Chapter 6, unless the employer demonstrates to the Commission that good cause exists for 81 such failure.

82 G. An employer shall not be found to have failed to respond timely or adequately to a written 83 request by the Commission for information relating to a claim if the Commission finds good cause for 84 such failure. The Commission may not find good cause for an employer's failure to respond timely or 85 adequately to such a written request unless the failure is due to compelling and necessitous circumstances
86 beyond the employer's control. The Commission shall find good cause for an employer's failure to respond
87 timely or adequately to such a written request if the employer demonstrates that the Commission (i) did 88 not deliver such request to the physical or electronic mailing address specified in writing by the employer 89 for unemployment insurance claim matters or (ii) did not deliver such request to the employer's designated 90 attorney or authorized representative for unemployment insurance claim matters.

91 H. If the Commission has determined that an employer has established a pattern of failing to 92 respond timely or adequately to written requests for information relating to claims, such determination
93 shall remain in effect until the end of the applicable review period. Any benefit charges for an erroneous 94 payment that the Commission has determined are not to be relieved from the employer's account pursuant 95 to subsection B shall remain chargeable to the employer's account through the period ending on the fourth 96 June 30 following the Commission's determination.

97 ~~I. The issue of whether an employer's account shall be relieved of charges relating to an erroneous~~
98 ~~payment, including whether an erroneous payment was made because the employer failed to respond~~
99 ~~timely or adequately to a written request by the Commission for information relating to the claim, shall~~ 100 ~~be decided in every Commission proceeding arising from an employer's appeal of an award of benefits.~~
101 ~~Any such decision shall be subject to appeal pursuant to § 60.2-620. Final decisions shall be used in~~ 102 ~~determining whether the employer has established a pattern of failing to respond timely or adequately to~~ 103 ~~written requests for information relating to claims, whether the employer is subject to a civil penalty~~
104 ~~pursuant to subsection F, and whether the Commission has given the notices required pursuant to~~ 105 ~~subsection E.~~

106           ~~J.~~ The costs of benefits charged to any governmental entity, Indian tribe, or nonprofit entity that is 107 a reimbursable employing unit under this title shall not include any credits of benefit overpayments 108 actually collected by the Commission if the Commission finds that ~~the overpayment was made because~~ 109 the entity or its agent was at fault for failing to respond timely or adequately to a written request for 110 information relating to a claim and the entity or agent has established a pattern of failing to respond timely 111 or adequately to such requests.

112           ~~K.~~J. If the erroneous payment results from a combined-wage claim, the determination of 113 noncharging for the combined-wage claim shall be made by the paying state. If the response from the 114 employer does not meet the criteria established by the paying state for an adequate or timely response, the 115 paying state shall promptly notify the transferring state of its determination, and the employer shall be 116 appropriately charged.

117           ~~L.~~K. This section applies to erroneous payments established on or after ~~July 7, 2013~~ July 1, 2025.

118           § 60.2-619. Determinations and decisions by deputy; appeals therefrom.

119           A. 1. A representative designated by the Commission as a deputy, shall promptly examine the 120 claim. The deputy shall only examine or consider in the claim review process information or evidence 121 from an employer or third party if the deputy (i) has provided the claimant with a reasonable opportunity 122 to review and respond to all potentially disqualifying issues or conflicting or otherwise adverse material 123 facts within such information or evidence, (ii) has documented all material responsive information 124 received from the claimant pursuant to clause (i), and (iii) considers material responsive information in 125 the deputy's evaluation of the claim. On the basis of the facts found by him, the deputy shall either:

126           a. Determine whether or not such claim is valid, and if valid, the week with respect to which 127 benefits shall commence, the weekly benefit amount payable and the maximum duration thereof; or

128           b. Refer such claim or any question involved therein to any appeal tribunal or to the Commission, 129 which tribunal or Commission shall make its determination in accordance with the procedure described 130 in § 60.2-620.

131           2. When the payment or denial of benefits will be determined by the provisions of subdivision A 132 2 of § 60.2-612, the deputy shall promptly transmit his full finding of fact with respect to that subdivision

133 to any appeal tribunal, which shall make its determination in accordance with the procedure described in 134 § 60.2-620.

135 B. Upon the filing of an initial claim for benefits, the Commission shall cause an informatory 136 notice of such filing to be mailed to the most recent 30-day or 240-hour employing unit of the claimant 137 and all subsequent employing units, and any reimbursable employing units which may be liable for 138 reimbursement to the Commission for any benefits paid. However, the failure to furnish such notice shall 139 not have any effect upon the claim for benefits.

140 C. Notice of determination upon a claim, the reasoning behind the decision, and a statement of 141 case-specific facts material to the determination shall be promptly given to the claimant by delivering or 142 by mailing such notice to the claimant's last known address. In addition, notice of any determination which 143 involves the application of the provisions of § 60.2-618, together with the reasons therefor, shall be 144 promptly given in the same manner to the most recent 30-day or 240-hour employing unit by whom the 145 claimant was last employed and any subsequent employing unit which is a party. The Commission may 146 dispense with the giving of notice of any determination to any employing unit, and such employing unit 147 shall not be entitled to such notice if it has failed to respond timely or adequately to a written request of 148 the Commission for information, as required by § 60.2-528.1, from which the deputy may have determined 149 that the claimant may be ineligible or disqualified under any provision of this title. The deputy shall 150 promptly notify the claimant of any decision made by ~~him~~ the deputy, the reasoning behind the decision, 151 and a statement of case-specific facts material to the determination at any time which in any manner denies 152 benefits to the claimant for one or more weeks. As used in this subsection, the reasoning behind the 153 decision means an explanation in plain language of (i) the law or regulation upon which the determination 154 is based; (ii) the application of the law to the material information or evidence obtained from the claimant, 155 employer, or third party; and (iii) the legal conclusion drawn from the application of the law to such 156 information or evidence.

157 D. Such determination or decision shall be final unless the claimant or any such employing unit 158 files an appeal from such determination or decision (i) within 30 calendar days after the delivery of such 159 notification, (ii) within 30 calendar days after such notification was mailed to his last known address, or 160 (iii) within 30 days after such notification was mailed to the last known address of an interstate claimant.

161 For good cause shown, the 30-day period may be extended. A claim that the Commission has determined 162 to be invalid because of monetary ineligibility shall first be subject to review only upon a request for 163 redetermination pursuant to § 60.2-629. The Commission shall issue a new monetary determination as a 164 result of such review, and such monetary determination shall become final unless appealed by the claimant
165 within 30 days of the date of mailing. The Commission shall clearly set out the process for requesting a 166 redetermination and the process for filing an appeal on each monetary determination issued. Monetary 167 ineligibility does not include an appeal on the effective date of the claim, unless the claimant has requested 168 and received a redetermination of the monetary determination pursuant to § 60.2-629.

169 E. Benefits shall be paid promptly in accordance with a determination or redetermination under 170 this chapter, or decision of an appeal tribunal, the Commission, the Board of Review or a reviewing court 171 under §§ 60.2-625 and 60.2-631 upon the issuance of such determination, redetermination or decision, 172 regardless of the pendency of the period to file an appeal or petition for judicial review that is provided in 173 this chapter, or the pendency of any such appeal or review. Such benefits shall be paid unless or until such 174 determination, redetermination or decision has been modified or reversed by a subsequent redetermination 175 or decision, in which event benefits shall be paid or denied for weeks of unemployment thereafter in 176 accordance with such modifying or reversing redetermination or decision. If a decision of an appeal
177 tribunal allowing benefits is affirmed in any amount by the Commission, benefits shall continue to be paid 178 until such time as a court decision has become final so that no further appeal can be taken. If an appeal is 179 taken from the Commission's decision, benefits paid shall result in a benefit charge to the account of the 180 employer under § 60.2-530 only when, and as of the date on which, as the result of an appeal, the courts
181 finally determine that the Commission should have awarded benefits to the claimant or claimants involved 182 in such appeal.

183 2. That the provisions of this act shall become effective on July 1, 2025.
