A BILL to amend and reenact §§ 16.1-266 and 16.1-267 of the Code of Virginia, relating to juveniles; appointment of counsel; indigency.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That §§ 16.1-266 and 16.1-267 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 16.1-266. Appointment of counsel and guardian ad litem.

A. Prior to the hearing by the court of any case involving a child who is alleged to be abused or neglected or who is the subject of an entrustment agreement or a petition seeking termination of residual parental rights or who is otherwise before the court pursuant to subdivision A 4 of § 16.1-241 or § 63.2-1230, the court shall appoint a discreet and competent attorney-at-law as guardian ad litem to represent the child pursuant to § 16.1-266.1.

B. Prior to the detention hearing held pursuant to § 16.1-250, the court shall appoint a qualified and competent attorney-at-law to represent the child unless an attorney has been retained and appears on behalf of the child. For the purposes of appointment of counsel for the detention hearing held pursuant to § 16.1-250~~only~~, a child's indigence shall be presumed. Nothing in this subsection shall prohibit a judge from releasing a child from detention prior to appointment of counsel.

C. Subsequent to the detention hearing, if any, and prior to the adjudicatory or transfer hearing by the court of any case involving a child who is alleged to be in need of services, in need of supervision or delinquent, such child and his parent, guardian, legal custodian or other person standing in loco parentis shall be informed by a judge, clerk or probation officer of the child's right to counsel~~and of the liability of the parent, guardian, legal custodian or other person standing in loco parentis for the costs of such legal services pursuant to § 16.1-267~~ and be given an opportunity to:

27 1. Obtain and employ counsel of the child's own choice; or 28 2. Request that the court appoint counsel, ~~provided that before counsel is appointed or the court~~
29 ~~continues any appointment previously made pursuant to subsection B, the court shall determine that the~~
30 ~~child is indigent within the contemplation of the law pursuant to guidelines set forth in § 19.2-159 by~~
31 ~~requiring the child's parent, guardian, legal custodian or other person standing in loco parentis to complete~~
32 ~~a statement of indigence substantially in the form provided by § 19.2-159 and a financial statement, and~~
33 ~~upon determination of indigence.~~ For the purposes of appointment of counsel pursuant to this subdivision,
34 a child's indigence shall be presumed, and the court shall appoint an attorney from the list maintained by 35 the Indigent Defense Commission pursuant to § 19.2-163.01 to represent the child or may continue any 36 appointment previously made pursuant to subsection B; or

37 3. Waive the right to representation by an attorney, if the court finds the child and the parent,
38 guardian, legal custodian or other person standing in loco parentis of the child consent, in writing, and 39 such waiver is consistent with the interests of the child. Such written waiver shall be in accordance with 40 law and shall be filed with the court records of the case. A child who is alleged to have committed an 41 offense that would be a felony if committed by an adult, may waive such right only after he consults with 42 an attorney and the court determines that his waiver is free and voluntary. The waiver shall be in writing,
43 signed by both the child and the child's attorney and shall be filed with the court records of the case.

44 D. A judge, clerk or probation officer shall inform the parent or guardian of his right to counsel
45 prior to the adjudicatory hearing of a petition in which a child is alleged to be abused or neglected or at 46 risk of abuse or neglect as provided in subdivision A 2a of § 16.1-241 and prior to a hearing at which a
47 parent could be subjected to the loss of residual parental rights. In addition, prior to the hearing by the 48 court of any case involving any other adult charged with abuse or neglect of a child, this adult shall be 49 informed of his right to counsel. This adult and the parent or guardian shall be given an opportunity to:

50 1. Obtain and employ counsel of the parent's, guardian's or other adult's own choice; or 51 2. If the court determines that the parent, guardian or other adult is indigent within the 52 contemplation of the law pursuant to the guidelines set forth in § 19.2-159, a statement substantially in

53 the form provided by § 19.2-159 and a financial statement shall be executed by such parent, guardian or 54 other adult and the court shall appoint an attorney-at-law to represent him; or

55 3. Waive the right to representation by an attorney in accordance with the provisions of § 19.2-56 160.

57 If the identity or location of a parent or guardian is not reasonably ascertainable or a parent or 58 guardian fails to appear, the court shall consider appointing an attorney-at-law to represent the interests of 59 the absent parent or guardian, and the hearing may be held.

60 Prior to a hearing at which a child is the subject of an initial foster care plan filed pursuant to § 61 16.1-281, a foster care review hearing pursuant to § 16.1-282 and a permanency planning hearing pursuant 62 to § 16.1-282.1, the court shall consider appointing counsel to represent the child's parent or guardian.

63 E. In those cases described in subsections A, B, C and D, which in the discretion of the court
64 require counsel or a guardian ad litem to represent the child or children or the parent or guardian or other
65 adult party in addition to the representation provided in those subsections, a discreet and competent 66 attorney-at-law may be appointed by the court as counsel or a guardian ad litem.

67 F. In all other cases which in the discretion of the court require counsel or a guardian ad litem, or 68 both, to represent the child or children or the parent or guardian, discreet and competent attorneys-at-law
69 may be appointed by the court. However, in cases where the custody of a child or children is the subject
70 of controversy or requires determination and each of the parents or other persons claiming a right to 71 custody is represented by counsel, the court shall not appoint counsel or a guardian ad litem to represent 72 the interests of the child or children unless the court finds, at any stage in the proceedings in a specific 73 case, that the interests of the child or children are not otherwise adequately represented.

74 G. Any state or local agency, department, authority or institution and any school, hospital,
75 physician or other health or mental health care provider shall permit a guardian ad litem or counsel for the 76 child appointed pursuant to this section to inspect and copy, without the consent of the child or his parents,
77 any records relating to the child whom the guardian or counsel represents upon presentation by him of a
78 copy of the court order appointing him or a court order specifically allowing him such access. Upon 79 request therefor by the guardian ad litem or counsel for the child made at least 72 hours in advance, a

80 mental health care provider shall make himself available to conduct a review and interpretation of the 81 child's treatment records which are specifically related to the investigation. Such a request may be made
82 in lieu of or in addition to inspection and copying of the records.

83 § 16.1-267. Compensation of appointed counsel.

84 A. When the court appoints counsel to represent a child pursuant to subsection A of § 16.1-266
85 and, after an investigation by the court services unit, finds that the parents are financially able to pay for 86 the attorney and refuse to do so, the court shall assess costs against the parents for such legal services in 87 the maximum amount of that awarded the attorney by the court under the circumstances of the case,
88 considering such factors as the ability of the parents to pay and the nature and extent of the counsel's duties
89 in the case. Such amount shall not exceed the maximum amount specified in subdivision 1 of § 19.2-163
90 if the action is in district court. ~~When the court appoints counsel to represent a child pursuant to subsection~~
91 ~~B or C of § 16.1-266 and, after an investigation by the court services unit, finds that the parents are~~
92 ~~financially able to pay for the attorney in whole or in part and refuse to do so, the court shall assess costs~~
93 ~~in whole or in part against the parents for such legal services in the amount awarded the attorney by the~~
94 ~~court. Such amount shall not exceed $100 if the action is in circuit court or the maximum amount specified~~
95 ~~in subdivision 1 of § 19.2-163 if the action is in district court. In determining the financial ability of the~~
96 ~~parents to pay for an attorney to represent the child, the court shall utilize the financial statement required~~
97 ~~by § 19.2-159.~~

98 In all other cases, except as provided in § 16.1-343, counsel appointed to represent a child shall be
99 compensated for his services pursuant to § 19.2-163.

101 16.1-266, such counsel shall be compensated for his services pursuant to § 19.2-163.

102 C. 1. In any proceeding in which the court appoints a guardian ad litem to represent a child pursuant 103 to § 16.1-266, the court shall order the parent, or other party with a legitimate interest who has filed a
104 petition in such proceeding, to reimburse the Commonwealth the costs of such services in an amount not
