| 1 | HOUSE BILL NO. 2290 |
|----|--|
| 2 | AMENDMENT IN THE NATURE OF A SUBSTITUTE |
| 3 | (Proposed by the House Committee for Courts of Justice |
| 4 | on) |
| 5 | (Patron Prior to SubstituteDelegate Brewer) |
| 6 | A BILL to amend and reenact §§ 20-49.8, 20-108.2, and 63.2-1913 of the Code of Virginia, relating to |
| 7 | judgment or child support order for pregnancy and delivery expenses. |
| 8 | Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: |
| 9 | 1. That §§ 20-49.8, 20-108.2, and 63.2-1913 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted as |
| 10 | follows: |
| 11 | § 20-49.8. Judgment or order; costs; birth record. |
| 12 | A. As used in this section: |
| 13 | "Bereavement leave" means the equivalent of 10 business days at the mother's hourly wage if the |
| 14 | mother is employed, or at the minimum wage if the mother is unemployed, for eight hours per day for a |
| 15 | total of 80 hours. |
| 16 | "Paid maternity leave" means the equivalent of 40 business days at the mother's hourly wage if the |
| 17 | mother is employed, or the minimum wage if the mother is unemployed, for eight hours per day for a total |
| 18 | of 320 hours. |
| 19 | "Pregnancy and delivery expenses" means an amount equal to the sum of a pregnant mother's |
| 20 | reasonable and necessary medical costs that are not paid by insurance or an employer or government |
| 21 | program, minus any portion of such sum that a court determines is equitable based on the totality of the |
| 22 | circumstances. Any amount paid by either parent may be credited by a court. |
| 23 | B. A judgment or order establishing parentage may include any provision directed against the |
| 24 | appropriate party to the proceeding, concerning the duty of support, including an equitable apportionment |
| 25 | of the expenses incurred on behalf of the child from the date the proceeding under this chapter was filed |
| 26 | with the court against the alleged parent or, if earlier, the date an order of the Department of Social Services |

27 entered pursuant to Title 63.2 and directing payment of support was delivered to the sheriff or process 28 server for service upon the obligor. The judgment or order may be in favor of the natural parent or any 29 other person or agency who incurred such expenses provided the complainant exercised due diligence in 30 the service of the respondent. The judgment or order may also include provisions for the custody and 31 guardianship of the child, visitation privileges with the child, or any other matter in the best interest of the 32 child. In circumstances where the parent is outside the jurisdiction of the court, the court may enter a 33 further order requiring the furnishing of bond or other security for the payment required by the judgment 34 or order. The In the event of a live birth, the judgment or order may shall, except for good cause shown 35 or as otherwise agreed to by the parties, direct-either party the legal parent to pay-the reasonable and 36 necessary unpaid expenses, if not already granted or reimbursed by an employer or government program, 37 a share of (i) the mother's pregnancy and delivery or equitably apportion the unpaid expenses between the 38 parties in proportion to the parent's gross incomes, as used for calculating the monthly support obligation, 39 pursuant to § 20-108.2 and (ii) at least 50 percent of the equivalent of the mother's paid maternity leave. Notwithstanding subsection B of § 20-108.1, the court shall have the authority to order child support 40 41 pursuant to § 20-108.2 beginning at the date of conception. In the event of a nonviable pregnancy or 42 stillbirth, the judgment or order shall direct the legal parent to pay at least 50 percent of the mother's 43 bereavement leave if not already granted or reimbursed by an employer or government program. However, 44 when the Commonwealth, through the Medicaid program or other government program, has paid such 45 expenses, the court may order reimbursement from the legal parent to the Commonwealth for such 46 expenses.

B.-C. A determination of paternity made by any other state shall be given full faith and credit, whether established through voluntary acknowledgment or through administrative or judicial process; provided, however, that, except as may otherwise be required by law, such full faith and credit shall be given only for the purposes of establishing a duty to make payments of support and other payments contemplated by subsection-A B.

52 C.-D. For each court determination of parentage made under the provisions of this chapter, a 53 certified copy of the order or judgment shall be transmitted to the State Registrar of Vital Records by the 54 clerk of the court within thirty days after the order becomes final. Such order shall set forth the full name 55 and date and place of birth of the person whose parentage has been determined, the full names of both 56 parents, including the maiden name, if any, of the mother and the name and address of an informant who 57 can furnish the information necessary to complete a new birth record. In addition, when the State Registrar 58 receives a document signed by a man indicating his consent to submit to scientifically reliable genetic 59 tests, including blood tests, to determine paternity and the genetic test results affirming at least a ninety-60 eight percent probability of paternity, a new birth record shall be completed as provided in § 32.1-261. 61 When the State Registrar receives a copy of a judgment or order for a person born outside of this 62 Commonwealth, such order shall be forwarded to the appropriate registration authority in the state of birth 63 or the appropriate federal agency.

§ 20-108.2. Guideline for determination of child support; quadrennial review by Child 65 Support Guidelines Review Panel; executive summary.

66 A. There shall be a rebuttable presumption in any judicial or administrative proceeding for child 67 support under this title or Title 16.1 or 63.2, including cases involving split custody, shared custody, or 68 multiple custody arrangements pursuant to subdivisions G 4, 5, and 6, that the amount of the award which 69 would result from the application of the guidelines set forth in this section is the correct amount of child 70 support to be awarded. In order to rebut the presumption, the court shall make written findings in the order 71 as set out in § 20-108.1, which findings may be incorporated by reference, that the application of the 72 guidelines would be unjust or inappropriate in a particular case as determined by relevant evidence 73 pertaining to the factors set out in § 20-108.1. The Department of Social Services shall set child support 74 at the amount resulting from computations using the guidelines set out in this section pursuant to the 75 authority granted to it in Chapter 19 (§ 63.2-1900 et seq.) of Title 63.2 and subject to the provisions of § 76 63.2-1918.

77 B. For purposes of application of the guideline, a basic child support obligation shall be computed 78 using the schedule set out below. For combined monthly gross income amounts falling between amounts 79 shown in the schedule, basic child support obligation amounts shall be extrapolated. However, unless one 80 of the following exemptions applies where the sole custody child support obligation as computed pursuant 81 to subdivision G 1 is less than the statutory minimum per month, there shall be a presumptive minimum 82 child support obligation of the statutory minimum per month payable by the payor parent. If the gross 83 income of the obligor is equal to or less than 150 percent of the federal poverty level promulgated by the 84 U.S. Department of Health and Human Services from time to time, then the court, upon hearing evidence 85 that there is no ability to pay the presumptive statutory minimum, may set an obligation below the 86 presumptive statutory minimum provided doing so does not create or reduce a support obligation to an 87 amount which seriously impairs the custodial parent's ability to maintain minimal adequate housing and 88 provide other basic necessities for the child. Exemptions from this presumptive minimum monthly child 89 support obligation shall include: parents unable to pay child support because they lack sufficient assets 90 from which to pay child support and who, in addition, are institutionalized in a psychiatric facility; are 91 imprisoned for life with no chance of parole; are medically verified to be totally and permanently disabled 92 with no evidence of potential for paying child support, including recipients of Supplemental Security 93 Income (SSI); or are otherwise involuntarily unable to produce income. "Number of children" means the 94 number of children for whom the parents share joint legal responsibility and for whom support is being 95 sought. The guidelines worksheet relied upon by the court or the Department of Social Services to compute 96 a child support obligation for a support order issued by such court or the Department shall be placed in 97 the court's file or the Department's file, and a copy of such guidelines worksheet shall be provided to the 98 parties.

100 For gross monthly incomes above $35,000, add the amount of child support for $35,000 to the 101 following percentages of gross income above $35,000.

102 C. For purposes of this section, "gross income" means all income from all sources, and shall 103 include, but not be limited to, income from salaries, wages, commissions, royalties, bonuses, dividends, 104 severance pay, pensions, interest, trust income, annuities, capital gains, social security benefits except as 105 listed below, workers' compensation benefits, unemployment insurance benefits, disability insurance 106 benefits, veterans' benefits, spousal support, rental income except as listed below, gifts, prizes, or awards. 107 If a parent's gross income includes disability insurance benefits, it shall also include any amounts 108 paid to or for the child who is the subject of the order and derived by the child from the parent's entitlement to disability insurance benefits. To the extent that such derivative benefits are included in a parent's gross income, that parent shall be entitled to a credit against his or her ongoing basic child support obligation for any such amounts, and, if the amount of the credit exceeds the parent's basic child support obligations, the credit may be used to reduce arrearages.

Gross income shall be subject to deduction of reasonable business expenses for persons with income from self-employment, a partnership, or a closely held business. Gross rental income from any property owned individually, jointly, or by any entity shall be subject to deduction of reasonable expenses; however, the deduction shall not include the cost of acquisition, depreciation, or the principal portion of any mortgage payment. The party claiming any deduction for reasonable business expenses or reasonable expenses for rental property shall have the burden of proof to establish such expenses by a preponderance of the evidence.

120 "Gross income" shall not include:

121 1. Benefits from public assistance and social services programs as defined in § 63.2-100;

122 2. Federal supplemental security income benefits;

123 3. Child support received; or

4. Income received by the payor from secondary employment income not previously included in "gross income," where the payor obtained the income to discharge a child support arrearage established by a court or administrative order and the payor is paying the arrearage pursuant to the order. "Secondary employment income" includes but is not limited to income from an additional job, from self-employment, or from overtime employment. The cessation of such secondary income upon the payment of the arrearage shall not be the basis for a material change in circumstances upon which a modification of child support may be based.

For purposes of this subsection: (i) spousal support received shall be included in gross income and spousal support paid shall be deducted from gross income when paid pursuant to an order or written agreement and (ii) one-half of any self-employment tax paid shall be deducted from gross income.

Where there is an existing court or administrative order or written agreement relating to the childor children of a party to the proceeding, who are not the child or children who are the subject of the present proceeding, then there is a presumption that there shall be deducted from the gross income of the partysubject to such order or written agreement, the amount that the party is actually paying for the support ofa child or children pursuant to such order or agreement.

139 Where a party to the proceeding has a natural or adopted child or children in the party's household 140 or primary physical custody, and the child or children are not the subject of the present proceeding, there 141 is a presumption that there shall be deducted from the gross income of that party the amount as shown on 142 the Schedule of Monthly Basic Child Support Obligations contained in subsection B that represents that 143 party's support obligation based solely on that party's income as being the total income available for the 144 natural or adopted child or children in the party's household or primary physical custody, who are not the 145 subject of the present proceeding. Provided, however, that the existence of a party's financial responsibility 146 for such a child or children shall not of itself constitute a material change in circumstances for modifying 147 a previous order of child support in any modification proceeding. Any adjustment to gross income under 148 this subsection shall not create or reduce a support obligation to an amount which seriously impairs the 149 custodial parent's ability to maintain minimal adequate housing and provide other basic necessities for the 150 child, as determined by the court.

151 In cases in which retroactive liability for support is being determined, the court or administrative152 agency may use the gross monthly income of the parties averaged over the period of retroactivity.

153 D. Except for good cause shown or the agreement of the parties, in addition to any other child 154 support obligations established pursuant to this section, any child support order shall provide that the 155 parents pay in proportion to their gross incomes, as used for calculating the monthly support obligation, 156 any reasonable and necessary unreimbursed medical or dental expenses. The method of payment of those 157 expenses shall be contained in the support order. Each parent shall pay his respective share of expenses as 158 those expenses are incurred. Any amount paid under this subsection shall not be adjusted by, nor added 159 to, the child support calculated in accordance with subsection G. For the purposes of this section, medical 160 or dental expenses shall include but not be limited to eyeglasses, prescription medication, prosthetics, 161 orthodontics, and mental health or developmental disabilities services, including but not limited to services 162 provided by a social worker, psychologist, psychiatrist, counselor, or therapist.

163 D1. In any initial child support proceeding commenced within six months of the birth of a child, 164 except for good cause shown or the agreement of the parties, in addition to any other child support 165 obligations established pursuant to this section, the child support order shall-provide that the parents pay 166 in proportion to their gross incomes, as used for calculating the monthly support obligation, any reasonable 167 and necessary unpaid expenses, in the event of a live birth, direct the legal parent, if not already granted 168 or reimbursed by an employer or government program, to pay a share of (i) the mother's pregnancy and 169 the delivery-of expenses, as defined in § 20-49.8, in proportion to the parent's gross incomes, as used for 170 calculating the monthly support obligation pursuant to this section, for such child and (ii) at least 50 171 percent of the equivalent of the mother's paid maternity leave, as defined in § 20-49.8. Notwithstanding 172 subsection B of § 20-108.1, the court shall have the authority to order child support pursuant to § 20-108.2 173 beginning at the date of conception. In the event of a nonviable pregnancy or stillbirth, the court shall 174 direct the legal parent to pay at least 50 percent of bereavement leave, as defined in § 20-49.8, if not 175 already granted or reimbursed by an employer or government program. Any amount paid under this 176 subsection shall not be adjusted by, nor added to, the child support calculated in accordance with 177 subsection G However, when the Commonwealth, through the Medicaid program or other government 178 program, has paid such expenses, the court may order reimbursement from the legal parent to the 179 Commonwealth for such expenses.

180 E. The costs for health care coverage as defined in § 63.2-1900, vision care coverage, and dental 181 care coverage for the child or children who are the subject of the child support order that are being paid 182 by a parent or that parent's spouse shall be added to the basic child support obligation. To determine the 183 cost to be added to the basic child support obligation, the cost per person shall be applied to the child or 184 children who are subject of the child support order. If the per child cost is provided by the insurer, that is 185 the cost per person. Otherwise, to determine the cost per person, the cost of individual coverage for the 186 policy holder shall be subtracted from the total cost of the coverage, and the remaining amount shall be 187 divided by the number of remaining covered persons.

F. Any child-care costs incurred on behalf of the child or children due to employment of thecustodial parent shall be added to the basic child support obligation. Child-care costs shall not exceed the amount required to provide quality care from a licensed source. When requested by the noncustodial parent, the court may require the custodial parent to present documentation to verify the costs incurred for child care under this subsection. Where appropriate, the court shall consider the willingness and availability of the noncustodial parent to provide child care personally in determining whether child-care costs are necessary or excessive. Upon the request of either party, and upon a showing of the tax savings a party derives from child-care cost deductions or credits, the court shall factor actual tax consequences into its calculation of the child-care costs to be added to the basic child support obligation.

197 G. 1. Sole custody support. The sole custody total monthly child support obligation shall be 198 established by adding (i) the monthly basic child support obligation, as determined from the schedule 199 contained in subsection B, (ii) costs for health care coverage to the extent allowable by subsection E, and 200 (iii) work-related child-care costs and taking into consideration all the factors set forth in subsection B of 201 § 20-108.1. The total monthly child support obligation shall be divided between the parents in the same 202 proportion as their monthly gross incomes bear to their monthly combined gross income. The monthly 203 obligation of each parent shall be computed by multiplying each parent's percentage of the parents' 204 monthly combined gross income by the total monthly child support obligation.

However, the monthly obligation of the noncustodial parent shall be reduced by the cost for health care coverage to the extent allowable by subsection E when paid directly by the noncustodial parent or that parent's spouse. Unreimbursed medical and dental expenses shall be calculated and allocated in accordance with subsection D.

209 2. Split custody support. In cases involving split custody, the amount of child support to be paid 210 shall be the difference between the amounts owed by each parent as a noncustodial parent, computed in 211 accordance with subdivision 1, with the noncustodial parent owing the larger amount paying the difference 212 to the other parent. Unreimbursed medical and dental expenses shall be calculated and allocated in 213 accordance with subsection D.

For the purpose of this section and § 20-108.1, split custody shall be limited to those situations where each parent has physical custody of a child or children born of the parents, born of either parent and adopted by the other parent or adopted by both parents. For the purposes of calculating a child support 217 obligation where split custody exists, a separate family unit exists for each parent, and child support for 218 that family unit shall be calculated upon the number of children in that family unit who are born of the 219 parents, born of either parent and adopted by the other parent or adopted by both parents. Where split 220 custody exists, a parent is a custodial parent to the children in that parent's family unit and is a noncustodial 221 parent to the children in the other parent's family unit.

222 3. Shared custody support.

(a) Where a party has custody or visitation of a child or children for more than 90 days of the year, as such days are defined in subdivision G 3 (c), a shared custody child support amount based on the ratio in which the parents share the custody and visitation of any child or children shall be calculated in accordance with this subdivision. The presumptive support to be paid shall be the shared custody support amount, unless a party affirmatively shows that the sole custody support amount calculated as provided in subdivision G 1 is less than the shared custody support amount. If so, the lesser amount shall be the

(i) Income share. "Income share" means a parent's percentage of the combined monthly gross income of both parents. The income share of a parent is that parent's gross income divided by the combined gross incomes of the parties.

233 (ii) Custody share. "Custody share" means the number of days that a parent has physical custody, 234 whether by sole custody, joint legal or joint residential custody, or visitation, of a shared child per year 235 divided by the number of days in the year. The actual or anticipated "custody share" of the parent who has 236 or will have fewer days of physical custody shall be calculated for a one-year period. The "custody share" 237 of the other parent shall be presumed to be the number of days in the year less the number of days 238 calculated as the first parent's "custody share." For purposes of this calculation, the year may begin on 239 such date as is determined in the discretion of the court, and the day may begin at such time as is 240 determined in the discretion of the court. For purposes of this calculation, a day shall be as defined in 241 subdivision G 3 (c).

(iii) Shared support need. "Shared support need" means the presumptive guideline amount of needed support for the shared child or children calculated pursuant to subsection B of this section, for the combined gross income of the parties and the number of shared children, multiplied by 1.4.

(iv) Sole custody support. "Sole custody support" means the support amount determined inaccordance with subdivision G 1.

247 (b) Support to be paid. The shared support need of the shared child or children shall be calculated 248 pursuant to subdivision G 3 (a) (iii). This amount shall then be multiplied by the other parent's custody 249 share. To that sum for each parent shall be added the other parent's or that parent's spouse's cost of health 250 care coverage to the extent allowable by subsection E, plus the other parent's work-related child-care costs 251 to the extent allowable by subsection F. This total for each parent shall be multiplied by that parent's 252 income share. The support amounts thereby calculated that each parent owes the other shall be subtracted 253 one from the other and the difference shall be the shared custody support one parent owes to the other, 254 with the payor parent being the one whose shared support is the larger. Unreimbursed medical and dental 255 expenses shall be calculated and allocated in accordance with subsection D.

(c) Definition of a day. For the purposes of this section, "day" means a period of 24 hours; however, where the parent who has the fewer number of overnight periods during the year has an overnight period with a child, but has physical custody of the shared child for less than 24 hours during such overnight period, there is a presumption that each parent shall be allocated one-half of a day of custody for that period.

(d) Minimum standards. Any calculation under this subdivision shall not create or reduce a support obligation to an amount which seriously impairs the custodial parent's ability to maintain minimal adequate housing and provide other basic necessities for the child. If the gross income of either party is equal to or less than 150 percent of the federal poverty level promulgated by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services from time to time, then the shared custody support calculated pursuant to this subsection shall not be the presumptively correct support and the court may consider whether the sole custody support or the shared custody support is more just and appropriate.

(e) Support modification. When there has been an award of child support based on the shared custody formula and one parent consistently fails to exercise custody or visitation in accordance with the parent's custody share upon which the award was based, there shall be a rebuttable presumption that the support award should be modified.

(f) In the event that the shared custody support calculation indicates that the net support is to be paid to the parent who would not be the parent receiving support pursuant to the sole custody calculation, then the shared support shall be deemed to be the lesser support.

4. Multiple shared custody support. In cases with different shared custody arrangements for two or more minor children of the parties, the procedures in subdivision G 3 shall apply, except that one shared guideline shall be used to determine the total amount of child support owed by one parent to the other by:

(a) Calculating each parent's custody share by adding the total number of days, as defined in subdivision G 3 (c), that each parent has with each child and dividing such total number of days by the number of children of the parties to determine the average number of shared custody days; and

(b) Using each parent's custody share as determined in subdivision G 4 (a) for each parent tocalculate the child support owed, in accordance with the provisions of subdivision G 3.

5. Sole and shared custody support. In cases where one parent has sole custody of one or more minor children of the parties, and the parties share custody of one or more other minor children of the parties, the procedures in subdivisions G 1 and 3 shall apply, except that one sole custody support guideline calculation and one shared custody support guideline calculation shall be used to determine the total amount of child support owed by one parent to the other by:

288 (a) Calcu

(a) Calculating the sole custody support obligation by:

(i) Calculating the per child monthly basic child support obligation by determining, for the number of children of the parties, the scheduled monthly basic child support obligation and dividing that amount by the number of children of the parties;

(ii) Calculating the sole custody pro rata monthly basic child support obligation by multiplying the per child monthly basic child support obligation determined in subdivision G 5 (a) (i) by the number of children subject to the sole custody support obligation; and

(iii) Applying the sole custody pro rata monthly basic child support obligation determined insubdivision G 5 (a) (ii) to the procedures in subdivision G 1.

297 (b) Calculating the shared custody child support obligation by:

(i) Calculating the per child monthly basic child support obligation by determining, for the number of children of the parties, the scheduled monthly basic child support obligation and dividing that amount
by the number of children of the parties;

301 (ii) Calculating the shared custody pro rata monthly basic child support obligation by multiplying 302 the per child monthly basic child support obligation determined in subdivision G 5 (b) (i) by the number 303 of children subject to the shared custody support obligation; and

304 (iii) Applying the shared custody pro rata monthly basic child support obligation determined in 305 subdivision G 5 (b) (ii) to the procedures in subdivision G 3.

(c) Determining the total amount of child support owed by one parent to the other. Where one parent owes both the sole custody support obligation and the shared custody support obligation to the other parent, the total of both such obligations calculated pursuant to subdivisions G 5 (a) and G 5 (b) shall be added to determine the total amount of child support owed by one parent to the other. Where one parent owes one such obligation to the other parent, and such other parent owes the other such obligation to the other parent, the total obligation to the other parent, and such other parent owes the other such obligation to the other parent obligation amount to the other parent shall pay the difference between the obligations to such other parent.

6. Split and shared custody support. In cases where the parents have split custody of two or more children, and there is a shared custody arrangement with one or more other minor children of the parties, the procedures set forth in subdivisions G 2 and G 3 shall apply, except that one split custody child support guideline calculation and one shared custody child support guideline calculation shall be used to calculate the total amount of child support owed by one parent to the other by:

318 (a) Calculating the split custody child support obligation by:

(i) Calculating the per child monthly basic child custody support obligation by determining, for the number of children of the parties, the scheduled monthly basic child support obligation and dividing that amount by the number of children of the parties;

(ii) Calculating the split custody pro rata monthly basic child support obligation by multiplying the per child monthly basic child support obligation determined in subdivision G 6 (a) (i) by the number of children subject to the split custody support obligation; and 325 (iii) Applying the split custody pro rata monthly basic child support obligation determined in326 subdivision G 6 (a) (ii) for each parent to the procedures in subdivision G 2.

327 (b) Calculating the shared custody child support obligation by:

(i) Calculating the per child monthly basic child custody support obligation by determining, for the number of children of the parties, the scheduled monthly basic child support obligation and dividing that amount by the number of children of the parties;

(ii) Calculating the shared custody pro rata monthly basic child custody support obligation by multiplying the per child monthly basic child support obligation determined in subdivision G 6 (b) (i) by the number of children subject to the shared custody support obligation; and

(iii) Applying the shared custody pro rata monthly basic child support obligation determined insubdivision G 6 (b) (ii) to the procedures in subdivision G 3.

(c) Determining the total amount of child support owed by one parent to the other. Where one parent owes both the split custody support obligation and the shared custody support obligation to the other parent, the total of both such obligations calculated pursuant to subdivisions G 6 (a) and G 6 (b) shall be added to determine the total amount of child support owed by one parent to the other. Where one parent owes one such obligation to the other parent, and such other parent owes the other such obligation to the other such parent, the parent owing the greater obligation amount to the other parent shall pay the difference between the obligations to such other parent.

H. The Secretary of Health and Human Resources shall ensure that the guideline set out in this section is reviewed by October 31, 2001, and every four years thereafter, by the Child Support Guidelines Review Panel, consisting of 15 members comprised of four legislative members and 11 nonlegislative citizen members. Members shall be appointed as follows: three members of the House Committee for Courts of Justice, upon the recommendation of the chairman of such committee, to be appointed by the Speaker of the House of Delegates in accordance with the principles of proportional representation 349 contained in the Rules of the House of Delegates; one member of the Senate Committee on the Judiciary, 350 upon the recommendation of the chairman of such committee, to be appointed by the Senate Committee 351 on Rules; and one representative of a juvenile and domestic relations district court, one representative of 352 a circuit court, one representative of the Department of Social Services' Division of Child Support 353 Enforcement, three members of the Virginia State Bar, two custodial parents, two noncustodial parents, 354 and one child advocate, upon the recommendation of the Secretary of Health and Human Resources, to 355 be appointed by the Governor. The Panel shall determine the adequacy of the guideline for the 356 determination of appropriate awards for the support of children by considering current research and data 357 on the cost of and expenditures necessary for rearing children, and any other resources it deems relevant 358 to such review. The Panel shall report its findings to the General Assembly as provided in the procedures 359 of the Division of Legislative Automated Systems for the processing of legislative documents and reports 360 before the General Assembly next convenes following such review.

Legislative members shall serve terms coincident with their terms of office. Nonlegislative citizen members shall serve at the pleasure of the Governor. All members may be reappointed. Appointments to fill vacancies, other than by expiration of a term, shall be made for the unexpired terms. Vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointments.

Legislative members shall receive such compensation as provided in § 30-19.12, and nonlegislative citizen members shall receive such compensation for the performance of their duties as provided in § 2.2-2813. All members shall be reimbursed for all reasonable and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties as provided in §§ 2.2-2813 and 2.2-2825. Funding for the costs of compensation and expenses of the members shall be provided by the Department of Social Services.

370 The Department of Social Services shall provide staff support to the Panel. All agencies of the371 Commonwealth shall provide assistance to the Panel, upon request.

The chairman of the Panel shall submit to the Governor and the General Assembly a quadrennial executive summary of the interim activity and work of the Panel no later than the first day of 2006 regular session of the General Assembly and every four years thereafter. The executive summary shall be 375 submitted as provided in the procedures of the Division of Legislative Automated Systems for the376 processing of legislative documents and reports and shall be posted on the General Assembly's website.

§ 63.2-1913. Administrative establishment of paternity.

The Department may establish the parent and child relationship between a child and a man upon request, verified by oath or affirmation, filed by a child, a parent, a person claiming parentage, a person standing in loco parentis to the child or having legal custody of the child, or a representative of the Department or the Department of Juvenile Justice. The request may be filed at any time before the child attains the age of eighteen years.

383 Pursuant to subsection F of § 63.2-1903, the Department may summons a parent or putative parent 384 to appear in the office of the Division of Child Support Enforcement to provide such information as may 385 be necessary to the proceeding.

Paternity may be established by a written statement of the father and mother made under oath acknowledging paternity or scientifically reliable genetic tests, including blood tests, which affirm at least a ninety-eight percent probability of paternity. The Department may order genetic testing and shall pay the costs of such tests, subject to recoupment from the father, if paternity is established. Where an original test is contested and additional testing is requested, the Department may require advance payment by the contestant.

Before a voluntary acknowledgment of paternity is accepted by the Department as the basis for establishing paternity, the Department shall provide to both the mother and the putative father a written and oral description of the rights and responsibilities of acknowledging paternity and the consequences that arise from a signed acknowledgment, including the right to rescind the acknowledgment within the earlier of (i) sixty days from the date of signing or (ii) the date of entry of an order in an administrative or judicial proceeding relating to the child in which the signatory is a party.

A genetic test result affirming at least a ninety-eight percent probability of paternity shall have the same legal effect as a judgment entered pursuant to § 20-49.8. When sixty days have elapsed from its signing, a voluntary statement acknowledging paternity shall have the same legal effect as a judgment entered pursuant to § 20-49.8 and shall be binding and conclusive unless, in a subsequent judicial 402 proceeding, the person challenging the statement establishes that the statement resulted from fraud, duress 403 or a material mistake of fact. In any subsequent proceeding in which a statement acknowledging paternity 404 is subject to challenge, the legal responsibilities of any person signing it shall not be suspended during the 405 pendency of the proceeding, except for good cause shown.

406 The order of the Department in proceedings pursuant to this section shall be served upon the 407 putative father in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 8 (§ 8.01-285 et seq.) or Chapter 9 (§ 8.01-408 328 et seq.) of Title 8.01. The Department shall file a copy of its order determining paternity, including 409 the information required by subsection-C D of § 20-49.8, with the State Registrar of Vital Records within 410 thirty days after the acknowledgment becomes binding and conclusive or the order otherwise becomes 411 final. No judicial or administrative proceeding shall be required to ratify an unchallenged acknowledgment 412 of paternity nor shall the Department or the courts have any jurisdiction over proceedings to ratify an 413 unchallenged acknowledgment.
