220 employee of a wholesaler who is specifically authorized by virtue of job title and responsibility to make 221 such statement and such other evidence as may be required by the Board pursuant to the facts of any given 222 circumstance.

223 B. Subsequent to compliance with subsection D, any wholesaler may file a petition against a 224 brewery, and any brewery may file a petition against a wholesaler, in which the petitioner alleges that the 225 respondent named in the petition as a matter of past or present fact has contemplated action that if carried 226 out would violate any provision of this chapter or clause (v) of subdivision A 1 b-(v) of § 4.1-225. Any 227 such petition filed shall identify with specificity the alleged contemplated action, the document in which 228 such contemplated action is described or authorized, and specify the provision of law or regulation that 229 the contemplated action would violate if carried out. The petition shall include a statement that a 230 controversy as to the lawfulness of the contemplated action exists. The statement shall be supported by 231 evidence of the petitioner's good faith effort to resolve the controversy in accordance with subsection D.
232 The petitioner shall have the burden of establishing that the contemplated actions identified in the petition,
233 if carried out, would violate any provision of law or regulation enumerated in this subsection. The Board
234 may, if it finds that a brewery or wholesaler has frivolously maintained a petition or defense to a 235 proceeding pursuant to this chapter, award reasonable costs and attorney fees to the prevailing party.

236 C. Any petition filed by a brewery or wholesaler pursuant to this section shall be delivered to the 237 Secretary of the Board. The Board shall promptly issue a written determination as to whether a violation
238 or attempted violation as alleged in the petition has occurred. In addition, the Board shall promptly issue 239 a written determination as to whether a violation alleged in the petition would occur if the contemplated
240 action identified in the petition were to be carried out.

241 D. Prior to filing a petition, a party shall communicate with the party alleged to be considering a 242 contemplated action and initiate a good faith attempt to resolve the issue in question. If within 21 days of 243 initiating the communication required by this subsection, or such longer period of time if mutually agreed 244 upon, there is no resolution, either party may proceed to file a petition in accordance with subsection B.
